Under Section 21f of the State School Aid Act (MCL 388.1621f), a district may provide up to 15 days of virtual instruction without the need for consent from the pupil's parent or legal guardian where the district has created a plan for providing virtual instruction to pupils during these days, the plan has been approved by the district's board of education, and notice has been provided to the impacted pupils and their parents or legal guardians prior to implementation.

I certify that the following criteria have been met;

- The district has created a plan for providing virtual instruction to pupils during these days. The plan has been approved by the district's board of education.
- Notice has been provided to the impacted pupils and their parents or legal guardians prior to implementation.
- These days were limited to:
 - emergency closures, which means a day where instruction has been canceled due to circumstances beyond the control of school authorities; or
 - student testing days, which can include any day where testing is taking place, including but not limited to state assessment days; or
 - professional development purposes, however, normal instructional time that is substituted for these purposes is limited to not more than 30 hours.
- District has provided their auditor with a calendar that designates the use of these days where possible. List days used below.
- The district's implementation plan delineates how pupils will be provided access to technology to allow every pupil to participate in virtual instruction during these days.
- The district's implementation plan should also identify how teachers are going to be made available to pupils during this instructional time.
